

APPLEBY MAGNÁ.

ACCIDENT.—On Friday as an Appleby man named Frank Kendall was working at his place in the Netherseal Colliery he heard two empty waggons coming along the lines, having jumped the points. He managed to get out of the way of these, but they ran into a prop, knocking it over, and this fell on the man's thigh, severely bruising it, so that he was unable to walk. Mr. Dickinson's groom drove him home, where he was attended by Dr. Davidson.
