SICK CLUB.—The annual general meeting of the Sick and Dividend Club was held at the Black Horse on Saturday. Mr. Charles Bowley presided over a good attendance. The secretary, Mr. A. J. Wills, read his report, which showed that 43 members were enrolled, and 41 retained their membership at the end of the year. The treasurer, Mr. W. Ball, presented the accounts, which showed receipts £30 18s., expenses—sick pay £10 12s., and other items £4 6s., the balance being £15 14s. The members received a dividend of 9s. 3d. each. The usual dinner was abandoned, but the members present spent a social evening together. A vote of thanks was cordially passed to Mr. and Mrs. Ball and to Messrs. Marston, Thompson and Evershed.
