

APPLEBY MAGNA.

Monday was a red-letter day in the village. At 10.45, the service at the church was well attended. At 1 p.m. an imposing procession, with decorated ponies, waggon, motor cars, children in fancy dress, and the Oddfellows in full regalia went round the village. From 1.45 to 9 sports and games were held for children and adults.

At 2.45, the children received souvenir mugs and went in to a substantial tea. After the children, the adults sat down to a wonderfully good tea. At 7.30, Mr. C. T. Bates (chairman of the Parish Council), gave the health of the King, and spoke of his wonderful reign during the past 25 years. Mr. T. Varnam (chairman of the Ashby R.D.C.) presented the prizes to the adult sports winners, and gave a cheery address to all who had so thoroughly enjoyed the day's proceedings. Votes of thanks were heartily accorded all the willing helpers.

Dancing, singing, and whist were kept up till midnight. The whist M.C. was Mr. S. W. Upton, and the prizewinners were Mrs. Jordan, Miss E. Gothard, Mr. C. T. Bates, and Mr. Birkenhead.
